DEVOTIONAL

Deuteronomy 29:29—“The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.”

Often, we think the Lord owes us an explanation for every event in our lives. Why, Lord? How come? Why did you ordain this? Why did you allow that?

We’re not supposed to have all the answers. The secret things belong to the Lord. He holds all events of history in his mind and under his control. This kind of knowledge would never fit in our very finite minds.

But God, in his mercy, does reveal certain things to us. He gives us the knowledge we need to obey his commandments. Although we don’t have all knowledge, we have all the knowledge we need for life and godliness.

We know that faith in our resurrected Lord comes with the power of the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Spirit enables us to live in accordance with God’s law. This is why Paul says in Galatians 2:20b, “And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.”

Pray for the following needs in the life of SHBC

Donna Tripi is scheduled for cataract surgery on Monday, Oct. 18th. She would appreciate prayer for a safe and successful surgery.

Matthew Petersen had a successful diverticulitis surgery to remove part of his colon. He is recovering well.

Dan Dimuro is recovering from a complicated gall bladder surgery and mild pneumonia.

Edward Nurquez has MDS (precursor to leukemia). He will need a bone marrow transplant and chemo.

May Findley had a successful lung surgery yesterday.

Judy Drago’s long time neighbor and friend, John Keys, is very ill and chances of recovery are slim. She would appreciate prayer for him.

Verona Plummer is home from the hospital after receiving treatment for a blood clot in her leg.

Tim Zivku was moved to ICU after experiencing respiratory distress.

Karen McKlveen and her family are grieving the loss of one of her twin girls. She asked for prayer for strength and direction as she handles her daughter’s affairs.

When you pray for someone’s health, remember to pray also for God to sustain and strengthen his or her faith.
